DIRECTORS NOTES

First, let me say...happy 75th Town & Country! What a great milestone. This play by Tennessee Williams is also celebrating its 75th anniversary and remains as relevant and thought-provoking today as it did then. I read somewhere that on opening night when the curtain went down there was a stunned silence and then the audience broke out in applause that lasted for half an hour! Wow that's a lot to live up to!

Most plays have one or two themes or controversies that drive the story forward. In Williams' script there are a myriad of challenging topics; mental illness, failure to understand/accept homosexuality, domestic and sexual violence and yet the characters persevere. They deal with their situations as best they can, given the constraints and norms of the era. We are from a different era, and it is easy for us to use today's lens to look back and judge their actions. I would suggest that we first, immerse ourselves in the story, identify the humanity (and/or lack of) for each character and find a bit of compassion.

Today I am thankful that we are more attune to the challenges that the play's characters encounter, and we have organizations dedicated to support. We still have a long way to go but just as I asked you to identify the humanity for the play's characters, we need to do the same to ourselves and each other and then extend a bit of compassion for what we/they may be going through.

T&C WANTS YOU TO KNOW....

Welcome to the Town and Country Players' 2022 Season. This represents a milestone year in our history, as this is our 75th season of bringing quality community theater to the Bucks County Area.

Town and Country Players got its start in 1948, with a production of The Late George Apley, performed at the Doylestown Borough School. T&C moved to our current location, "The Barn," in 1953, renting the barn until we purchased it in 1962. Throughout the years, we have made many improvements to our space, including air conditioning, catwalks, raked seating, sound and lighting improvements, and - perhaps most importantly - our addition in 2014 which tripled the number of restrooms and added rehearsal space.

That said, T&C is more than just the name and the barn that we perform in. If one looks at our database of past productions, one will find a list of nearly 4000 individuals who have been involved in our productions over the years, from actors, musicians, directors, and producers, to designers, technicians, carpenters, stage crew, and stage managers. This doesn't include those members who have supported us in other areas, including the myriad of business/operational areas required to continuously bring productions to the stage.

Of course, all the effort to required to bring a production to the stage wouldn't count for much without the support of our community. From the 400 patrons who came to see The Late George Apley in 1948 to the 150 who can fill the house for each performance our intimate theater today, without our patrons, all those hours and late nights spent rehearsing, designing, building would be for naught.

I also want to thank all those who have donated to T&C over the years. Your generosity has enabled us to keep the lights on, improve our infrastructure, and weather hard times (like the last couple of years).

When we started to plan our 75th season, we decided to focus on large cast, meaningful shows after two seasons impacted by COVID. We also wanted to celebrate our 75th season by selecting shows with either a tie to either T&C or to the Bucks County area. Tennessee Williams' most popular work, A Streetcar Named Desire, described as a "a poignant and luminous story," was first produced by T&C in 1968, with a second production in 1997. This year's production, directed by Jon Knapp, brings together a new cast and a new vision for the show. Whether you have seen our 1968 or 1997 productions or not, I hope you enjoy this one.
